

JOSEPH R. MANNI

Executive Vice President and COO, Joseph Manni has been at Deborah for over 30 years. Prior to handling the day-to-day operations of the Center and the Foundation, Mr. Manni held various positions during his tenure at the Hospital, including: Director of Support Services; Administrator of Deborah Research Institute; and, Director of Materials Management. He holds a Master's Degree in Healthcare Administration from St. Joseph's University and a BS in Biology from the University of Scranton. Mr. Manni is married with two children and resides in Medford, NJ.